

OCT 10 1955

Agency 3-1

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP70-00058R000100020081-9

Circ.: e. 91,847

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date:

NAME
IN THE NEWS

Arms Inspection Vital: Stassen 3

Harold Stassen says he is convinced the adoption of a dependable arms inspection disarmament plan "can well prove to be the magnet which will draw the East and West together in a genuine spirit of cooperation."

Senator George (D., Ga.) says there is hope for world peace if the United States maintains responsible world leadership.

Sir Winston Churchill says the safety of the world depends on "the essential and fundamental unity of the English speaking people."

Alice Joyce, a glamor queen of silent films, dies in Hollywood at age 65.

Mickey Cohen is on his way back to Los Angeles, where his name used to be mentioned in connection with rackets before he served close to four years for income tax evasion. He told a reporter he was thinking of opening a bar and grill in Beverly Hills or the so-called Miracle Mile.

Dr. William James Battle dies at 84. His 62-year stay at the University of Texas included being a book store operator and interim president. His field was foreign languages.

Asst. Secretary of State Henry F. Holland says the United States could agree "in principle" with plans for an international coffee agreement. This was the first official indication of U. S. policy toward a price-stabilizing plan being pushed by some Latin American producers.

Bernarr MacFadden, physical culturist and magazine publisher, reported in serious condition from a stomach disorder at Jersey City, N. J., Medical Center. He is 87.

Chiang Kai-shek, speaking at a review of armed forces in connection with a festival, tells his soldiers: "I hope you will remember the humiliation of our defeat in 1949 and prepare yourself for the counterattack" on the Communist mainland. He said conditions for the attack were ripening and did not necessarily involve the United States.

Allen Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says he thinks the Russians are good at collecting data but doubts they make the best use of what they learn.

Planning is reported under way for a new series of atomic tests next month at the Nevada proving grounds.

Mother Mary Joseph, 72, founder of the Maryknoll Sisters, a worldwide Catholic missionary order, dies in New York from peritonitis.

Daniel A. Everhart of Akron, Ohio, listed by FBI as one of its 10 most wanted criminals, arrested in an alley in Denver. Everhart escaped June 13, 1954, from the State Prison Farm at London, Ohio. Burglaries were among charges in his criminal record.

Defense Secretary Wilson selected for 1955 Washington Award in engineering for his contributions to society. The award is sponsored by the American Society of Civil Engineers, the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and the Western Society of Engineers.

Ezio Pinza and Walter Slezak, stars of Broadway musical "Fanny," are on sick list. Pinza has pneumonia and pleurisy. Slezak has a leg infection. Understudies are continuing the show.

Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., chairman and chief executive of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., has been named national chairman of Brotherhood Week.